A convenient Flexi-Fuel option is available at €10 per rental, which permits the renter to return the vehicle without returning their rental vehicle full of fuel, without incurring the €25 tanking fee. Fines received after vehicle return will be charged to Renter and an administration fee of €45.00 per fine will be charged to the Renter.

3.33 M50 Toll: The M50 is a tolled motorway which spans around Dublin. This motorway operates a barrier free tolling system between Junction 6 (Blanchardstown) and Junction 7 (Lucan), which means there is no payment facility at the tolling point and tolls must be paid after the fact, either online or by phone. Sixt vehicles are registered with toll operators, E-Flow, and therefore Sixt will automatically be charged for each toll incurred by you, for your convenience. Do not pay for any M50 toll charges directly (Please note: E-Flow will not accept payment in shops or online for fleet vehicles). This will result in a duplicate payment, which may not be possible for Sixt to identify. If you use an Easy Trip electronic toll tag, please ensure that this is not in a readable range when passing through the tolling point. To request an invoice for M50 toll charges please visit www.sixt.com/invoicecopy or email customer.service@sixt.ie. You will be charged €4.50 per toll usage by Sixt when using the M50 barrier free tolling system. This includes any associated administration fees. Upon notification by E-Flow, Sixt will then charge your credit card separately for payment of any M50 toll charges incurred by you. You will be charged the amount incl. administration fee to the Renter. All rates are inclusive of VAT (if VAT occurs). For corporate Renters with individual agreements, alternative prices and regulations can apply.

3.34 All other Toll Roads: The M50 in Dublin is the only toll road in Ireland that operates in this way. Sixt are not involved in the payment for these tolls, and the Renter is responsible for paying these tolls directly. All toll roads in Ireland, with the exception of the M50, use traditional, barrier operated toll plazas where you can pay your toll directly.

3.35 Children's Car Seat Requirements: EU and Irish law requires that that all children have the appropriate child/booster seat. Drivers have a legal responsibility to ensure that the correct child/booster seat is used, for all children, up to the age of 12 (or 150cm in height). A variety of categories of car seat are available for rental from Sixt, according to the weight and height of the child. Car seats are cleaned and safety checked by trained specialists prior to each hire. For health and safety reasons, Sixt employees cannot install the seat in the vehicle. This must be done by the Renter. A charge of €100.00 will be incurred by the Renter should the child seat be returned damaged or unclean. Renter will be charged for full replacement value of any car seat that is not returned following rental.

5. Insurance, Protections, Products and Charges

5.1 What Is Included? Your rental booking confirmation will provide a breakdown of everything that has been included in your rental rate. All rentals will include Third Party Liability Insurance at a minimum, which is a legal requirement to drive in Ireland. Most basic rental rates will also include Collision Damage Waiver, which is the minimum basic coverage required by Sixt (see 5.4 below for exceptions).

5.2 Third Party Liability Insurance: This is a legal requirement when driving in Ireland. It covers the driver against claims by third parties for property and injury claims. This insurance does not cover the driver, or rental vehicle for damages. This coverage is often included in the basic rental rate. In other cases, where this coverage is not included, Renters may also transfer their own insurance coverage (Irish-based insurance provider only). Sixt only recognises insurances, waivers, protections supplied by Sixt or by an Irish based insurance company. Sixt does not permit vehicles to be used for hire or reward, for carriage of passengers and goods (see section 5.14).

5.3 Collision Damage Waiver (CDW): Collision Damage Waiver is coverage of the rental vehicle in the event of accidental damage by the Renter or by another vehicle. Without this cover the Renter will be responsible for all damages to the rental vehicle. It is recommended that CDW be selected by the Renter. With Collision Damage Waiver an excess will apply, which varies depending on the vehicle group your rental vehicle falls within. See excess levels with this coverage type in section 5.8. The term excess may appear as 'Deductible' or 'DED' on Rental Agreement. CDW is not insurance.

Where not included in the rate, the cost of this coverage is up to €25.00 per day (may vary depending on vehicle category – see section 4.1).

*Note: See 'Exceptions to Collision Damage Waiver (CDW), Super Top Cover (STC) and Top Cover (TC)' detailed below in section 5.9.

5.4 CDW Exclusive Rates: Where the Renter has a 'CDW Exclusive Rate' and wishes to decline our Collision Damage Waiver (CDW) and Theft Protection (TP) the Renter must provide written confirmation (i.e. a printed letter) at commencement of rental that the Renter's credit card scheme is valid in the Republic of Ireland, for the type of vehicle being rented. This letter must be dated within 3 weeks of the commencement of the rental and must contain confirmation of the credit card number (a partly redacted credit card number will be accepted). The pre-authorisation is held as a guarantee for Renter's commitment to pay for damage to or loss of the rental vehicle, however, by declining Sixt's CDW the Renter remains responsible for the full value of the vehicle in the event of any loss or damage. All transactions and pre-authorisations must utilise the same credit card that is providing the coverage. Minimum pre-authorisation in these cases is €5,000.00. An administration fee of €35.00 plus VAT applies for this service.

5.5 Theft Protection: Payment for Theft Protection covers the rented vehicle in the event that it is stolen or damaged while attempted to be stolen. This cover does not apply if the Renter leaves the vehicle unlocked, or parked in an unsecured area or leave the keys unsecured. This does not cover theft of Renter's property. An excess applies. It is recommended that Theft Protection be selected by the Renter. With Theft Protection an excess will apply, which varies depending on the vehicle group your rental vehicle falls within. The term excess may appear as 'Deductible' or 'DED' on Rental Agreement. The cost of this protection is €7.00 per day. See excess levels with this coverage type in section 5.8. The term excess may appear as 'Deductible' or 'DED' on Rental Agreement. Theft Protection is not insurance.

5.6 Super Top Cover (STC): By purchasing Super Top Cover (STC) the renter may reduce the Collision Damage Waiver excess. The cost of this coverage is up to €40.00 per day (may vary depending on vehicle category – see section 4.1 for breakdown of vehicle groups). See excess levels with this coverage type in section 5.8. *Note: See 'Exceptions to Collision Damage Waiver (CDW), Super Top Cover (STC) and Top Cover (TC)' detailed below in section 5.9. Super Top Cover is not insurance.

5.7 Top Cover (TC): By purchasing Top Cover (TC) the renter may partly reduce the Collision Damage Waiver excess to a nominal amount. The cost of this coverage is up to €32.00 per day (may vary depending on vehicle category – see section 4.1 for breakdown of vehicle groups). See excess levels with this coverage type in section 5.8. Top Cover is not insurance.

*Note: See 'Exceptions to Collision Damage Waiver (CDW), Super Top Cover (STC) and Top Cover (TC)' detailed below in section 5.9.

5.8 Excess Levels by Vehicle Category and Coverage Type: An excess is the amount that you are liable to pay for damage to your rental vehicle. The excess level on your Rental Vehicle will vary depending on the vehicle group/class set, as well as the coverage type you have selected. The excess levels by vehicle category below are provided for guidance purposes only and may be subject to change. See your booking confirmation for the excess level specific to your booking. The term excess may appear as 'Deductible' or 'DED' on Rental Agreement.
